President's Corner by Sue Swan

President's Corner August 2018

Less than two months left until our Quilt Show...we're in the home stretch now. If you have not yet signed up, please take a few minutes this week and look over the volunteer lists to see where you can help. If everyone who is able signs up for a session or two, we will have a successful show.

Did you know...the biennial Quilt Show is the only fundraiser Lake and Mountain Guild conducts, and allows the Guild to provide special programs and speakers throughout the year. Our members have worked hard to get their quilts ready for the show, and a lot of behind the scenes effort has gone into the making of this show. Spread the word! Invite your friends and family to come and see the wonderful work that will be on display for two brief days!

Save the date, July 20 & 21, to attend the Quilting Expo in Columbia, SC. Yes, I know the Shop Hop will be in full swing at that time. However, a detour to Columbia would be fun, too, and a great way to support Quilters of SC.

Day Bee

DAY BEE DATE/TIME: August 21, 2018 9:00 am
PROJECT / TEACHER: FUN DAY
PLACE: Episcopal Church of the Ascension, Parrish Hall
214 Northampton Road, Seneca, SC (map on the website.)
CONTACT: Paula Crook - ptcsews@nctv.com 864-654-1341

Come one, come all! August will be a Fun Day. Bring your own project to work on and have a good time chatting with friends. Bring your lunch and plan to have a fun day.

We had planned to help Cathy Terry and Marlene Bell get the donated magazines organized for the quilt show. After some thinking about it, we have decided that would require a lot of extra work for Cathy (who is storing all of the magazines until the quilt show). However, Cathy and Marlene could use the help of any members who could come to the Shaver Center on Wednesday morning, September 19, for any amount of time that you could give. We'll be there by 9:00 a.m. They will be sorting and organizing the magazines at that time. It is a big job and any help you could give would help them out. Let's all work together to make this a great "A Kaleidoscope of Quilts" show.

2018 Quilt Show News

DATE: September 20-22, 2018
CONTACT: DeniseMcCormick – denise.mccormick@blueridge.coop

Time is running short and I can almost hear those machines humming. I finished my Kaleidoscope Quilt Show entry (almost) this weekend and I know how great it feels. The quilt show committee chairman have met and we are all preparing for this biennial event and know it will be a great show. Just a few reminders...

MOST IMPORTANTLY – All quilts that will be considered for the show MUST have the registration form completed by August 6. There is no wiggle room on this deadline. If you want to miss the rush and register your quilt prior to the August 6 meeting you may send it to Judy Hopp at 14 Eastern Point, Salem SC 29676 or scan and email your information to her at jmhopp@prodigy.net. REMEMBER, with our new hanging system, all quilts except the Challenge Quilts will need to have a hanging sleeve on the back.

Almost as important – Sign up to help! It takes the work of an entire guild to produce a successful show. There's still room for volunteers on most of the committees and we need your help. Additionally, there's still room for food for the preview party and for Friday and Saturday. Contact Lynn Landis at lblandis42@gmail.com to have your name added to the volunteer sheets. Lynn will have sign-up sheets at the August meetings as well.

Next – Bring items for the FAT QUARTER BASKET, the SILENT AUCTION, and be thinking about your contribution to the boutique. Sell your raffle tickets for our beautiful presentation quilt. All of the money we raise goes back to the guild to support our programs, workshops, and charities.

We understand that not everyone is aware of what each committee does during the show. On August 6 come prepared to hear from our committee chairs and see where you can best fit in best.

It's an exciting time and I appreciate all of the work being done in preparation for September. Our next two meetings, August 6 and August 27 are very important. I hope to see you there!

Library News <http://www.lmqg.org/files/LB15Dec.pdf>

Great News!!

The library committee is now accepting any and all quilting and sewing books & magazines for the quilt show. If you have older magazines that you would like to donate we will now accept them. Please make sure all pages and patterns are intact.

Continue to clean out your stash of unwanted books and magazines, as we still have a great need for them.

I will be at the August 6th & 27th guild meeting as well as, the day bee on August 21st. My car will be parked in front with the trunk open for your convenience.

We are still in need of volunteers to help us with the book sales during the show, and preview party. There are several time slots available. Please check our website to see what time frame will work for you. Call or email me (Cathy) and I will gladly write you in.

With your help we can make this one of the best quilt shows ever.

Thanks in advance,

Cathy Terry & Marlene
